Wholesale Substitutions Used by Coach Spears in Final Period of Easy Battle---Only Tdo Forward Passes Made Successfully by Indiana Team.

JORDAN FIELD, Nov. 11 .- West Virginia showed the Indiana Hoosiers more football ability than has been glimpsed on Jordan Field this season. Marvelous forward passing end runs made it a runaway game in the second half. The first half ended 7 to 0, and West Virginia only showed flashes of its real power in the first two periods, but when the playscame back on the field after the rest period they started in to run Indiana ragged in the game, and they did it nicely Indiana made one first down during the entire game to thirty for West Virginia. Indiana complete two forward passes for a net gain of five yards, one being good for seven yards and the other losing two yards.

West Virginia completed numerous passes and made wholesale substitutions in the final period.

JORDAN FIELD, Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 11.—Ideal weather pre-vailed here today for the intersectional clash between the Mountaintional class between the Mountain-eers and Indiana. The field was so dry that at 1 o'clock two lines of garden hose were turned on the field to lay the dut. The water sup-ply was so weak that it required almost until time for the game for the dust laying operations. A stiff breeze was blowing across the field.

West Virginia trotted down the slope from the gymnasium seven minutes before game time. Captain Meredith won the toss after fifteen minute quarters had been decided upon, and decided to receive the kick off at the west goal. Hanny prepared to kick off, the game starting five minutes late.
